MATERIAL FOR PUBLICATION

THE REPORT welcomes manuscripts of OHIO material for proposed publication. All manuscripts should be sent to:

THE EDITOR, 4649 YARMOUTH LANE, YOUNGSTOWN, OH 44512

The manuscript should be typed on standard-sized paper and have the author's name on each page; the pages should be numbered. A cover letter, giving permission from the author to publish the material in THE REPORT, should accompany the manuscript.

When sending photocopies of original old manuscripts, such as handwritten Bible records, please send a typed transcript for us to work from; it is usually much clearer on the original in your possession than on a photocopy.

The types of records requested for publication include Bible records, Ohio county court records (marriages, deed abstracts, naturalizations, will abstracts or other), Ohio cemetery inscriptions (not alphabetized), "How-To" articles (the use of special collections, holdings of a particular repository, etc.), abstracts from Ohio newspapers, brief family genealogies with Ohio connections (fully documented) and other material of an unusual but useful nature. The Editor makes the final decision on material to be published. Following publication, all original material is placed in the Ohio Genealogical Society Library in Mansfield. Every effort is made to present authentic material, but the Ohio Genealogical Society cannot be responsible for the accuracy or the publishing rights of the material furnished by contributors. All material is published with the permission of the contributor.

JEFFERSON SCOTT

OHIO GENEALOGICAL SOCIETY ESSAY CONTEST

by CHRISTIAN SCOTT, 720 THIRD AVENUE, GALLIPOLIS, OH 45631

The following essay was submitted by Christian Scott, who was the winner of the Senior Division of the Essay Contest. He is a 10th grade student at Gallia Academy High School. Other interests are music, history, science and sports. He likes to travel and meet people. Christian is also active in track and field. He hopes to continue in journalism in college.

Today, as I stand on the threshold of a new year, I turn and look again down the long corridors of time past. I see a shadowy figure standing there, just inside of the door marked 1844.

As I peer to see through the darkness, I recognize the person. It is my great, great grandfather, Jefferson Scott. I know it is because I have seen many pictures of him and have listened to my father, Harry D. Scott, and my cousin, Beulah Johnson, a black historian, talk about him.

In 1844, Jefferson Scott was a slave of John Hockaday, Halifax County, North Carolina. His master, being a kind person, didn't want to see his slaves sold or mistreated in any way by his relatives after his death. He decided to set them free.

In May 1844, he gave Jefferson Scott, Randall Carter and William Mumford a certificate of freedom, which they were to carry on their person at all times. This prevented them from being caught and returned to slavery.

Hockaday had three daughters by a slave woman, name unknown, which he gave to these three men as their wives. Caroline Hockaday was given to Jefferson Scott. They must have already been living together as husband and wife because when they started north to Ohio, the Scotts already had six children.

Jefferson Scott's father was a full-blooded Cherokee Indian and his mother, a mulatto. He was born in 1794. He and Caroline were parents of Cornelia, John, Mary, Delilah Frances, James Edward (who is my great grandfather), Albert, and six other children who were born in Ohio.

Jefferson and Caroline Scott, their children, the Mumfords, and the Carters travelled for about five months with all their earthly goods and treasures in a one-horse cart, winding their way through the mountains. When they came to a tollgate, their children hudddled together to be passed off as tobacco or coal. They must have been very brave to have made such a journey near the New River along the Kanawha to Charleston, West Virginia, on to Point Pleasant where they viewed their long sought "land of Canaan," the shors of the Ohio. They crossed the Ohio River and travelled until they reached a small hamlet known to us today as Adamsville, Ohio.

Jefferson Scott was a very colorful person. He owned land in Raccoon Township, Gallia County. He raised his children as farmers. He purchased thirty acres of land from A.L.Koontz for $300.00 on November 29, 1862 as stated in the deeds to the property. His son, James E. Scott, was also a farmer. This is stated on the papers when he enrolled voluntarily in the Civil War.

According to an interview with Beulah Johnson, as told to her by her grandmother, Sarah Long, daughter of Cornelia Scott Long, my great, great grandfather was known to have a violent temper. One story I have heard about him relates that during an argument with his own son-in-law, Wesley Howell, one of his owns sons grabbed him and held him around the waist to keep him from fighting. Jefferson was not able to control himself. He was so angry he "regurgitated backwards" and so to speak, "filled his shoes."

He wasn't the most faithful husband to Caroline, either, because he had another son by a woman in the community where he lived. He often took the family's produce, eggs and tools to this other woman. Caroline predicted that if he continued this way, he would end up in the poorhouse.

Later, great, great grandfather and his wife moved to Fostoria, and after she died, he wanted to make her words come true so he went to the poorhouse to live. His children were embarrassed, but the caretaker said to leave him because he would take good care of him. He died there in 1907 at the remarkable age of 113 years.

Jeff's "carrying on" led to several deeds being exchanged to the land located in Raccoon Township which he and Caroline owned. The first transfer was from Caroline Scott to Jefferson Scott, the second from James E. & Mary J. Scott to Jefferson, the third from Jefferson to David J. Rees as Trustee for Caroline, the fourth from David J. Rees to Caroline, and the fifth on February 6, 1893 from Elizabeth Rees to Caroline Scott. Presently, the land is owned by Opal and Lee Farrell, Ruth Ward, Ida L. Ferrell, and Jack Waters.

One important fact I learned about my great, great grandfather was he didn't legally marry Caroline until October 4, 1884. This is something that no other family member knows except me, my mother, and Beulah Johnson. His son-in-law, Wesley Howell, applied for the license. L.D.Cowden was the Probate Judge of Gallia County and Rev. James G. Fleming filed the license.

Jeff and Caroline had two sons named James. They were James Edward and James Monroe. James Edward is my great grandfather. He was born in Halifax County, North Carolina, in 1843. He was a volunteer of the Fifth Regiment of U.S. Colored Troops Company F. He enrolled on August 25, 1863, and was discharged a corporal on September 20, 1865. Carolina City, North Carolina. This was the first colored Regiment recruited in Ohio, the nucleus of which was a few colored men collected at Camp Delaware, Ohio.

James Edward married Mary Bunch, daughter of Andrew and Frances Bunch, and were the proud parents of nine children, one of which was my grandfather, Eugene Lester Scott. He was born April 17, 1870. Grandfather was a miner. He was foreman of the mine for thirty years and a school teacher. He attended school in a log building, with very few windows. The light was so poor that they could only study on the bright, sunny days during the winter. Eugene furthered his education by attending the academy at Centerville. This was an integrated his school which prepared persons to teach school and to hold other skilled jobs that call for more education.

Grandfather Eugene taught at what was known as the Bunch School and the colored Buck Ridge one-room school. He boarded at the home of my great uncle, Charles Smith. He married Bessie May Smith on March 12, 1900, in Gallia County and they were the parents of four children, one of which was my father, Harry Dolphis Scott, born January 15, 1909.

My dad attended the Bidwell Porter Schools and Nelsonville Schools, because he and his mother went to Nelsonville to live where his father was employed. My father had some of the traits of my great, great grandfather, Jefferson. He was a mild-mannered man, but could have a violent temper if he was made angry. My father worked at the Gallipolis Developmental Center and was a custodian at the Presbyterian Church in Gallipolis. My dad married my mother, Barbara Mae Smith, on January 6, 1965, in Chillicothe with Rev. L.V.Gause solemnizing the marriage. Unto this union, I, Harreld Christian Scott, was born on December 5, 1972.

I have walked through the corridors of time for a few fleeting moments. As the door to the past slowly opened, with the telling of many stories by my mother, father, relatives and with the historical facts I have acquired, the door has closed. I can go no further, because no other records, to my knowledge, are in existence.

I have learned a lot about my ancestors, the Hockaday Plantation, the farewell between slave master and slaves, the autumn of 1844, when the little caravan of kinfolk reached the shores of the Ohio. The log cabin at Adamsville, the children attending the one-room schools, the men who studied hard to get an education, the homelife of the women involved, the courtships, the love affairs, the sorrows, pain, defeat and victory, the voices raised in praise to an Almighty God on Sunday morning in the local churches, the coal mines, the clay mines, and I have also learned many things about family togetherness, the hard study and work of my forefathers to provide for their families, and last, but not least, the duty to keep my family's history alive, today and tomorrow.

CONDICT FAMILY REUNION

MARY JANE HENNEY

The following article is taken from the RICHLAND SHIELD AND BANNER published at Mansfield, OH, 21 Aug 1897.

Family reunions are becoming more and more common throughout the country. The tenth meeting of the Condit family and connections was held last Thursday at "Blue Grass Grove" near Sunbury, Delaware County. Over 250 sat down to a well-supplied table. The after dinner exercises consisted of the usual memorial records of those who died the past year, letters from various persons and short addresses by members of the family and recitations with appropriate music. Officers elected for ensuing year were: President, MATTHIAS CONDIT of Licking Co.; vice president, JOTHAM CONDIT of Orange, NJ; secretary and treasurer, LORENZO CONDIT, Delaware Co; historian, A.H.CONDICT of Mansfield. A few historical incidents may be of interest:

JOHN CUNDITT is first known in America in 1678 and purchased lands in the bounds of the town of Newark NJ conveyed to him in two deeds, dated Feb.27, 1689. The first deed is as follows: For several good causes and lawful considerations we hereunto moving, but expressly for, and in consideration of 13 months board and fifty shillings, have granted and sold unto the said JOHN CUNDITT eight acres of upland in the town of Newark and bounded on the north by HANS ALBERTS, on the east by the river, on the south by said Cunditt, and on the west by a highway. (Signed, RICHARD HORE). This with 19 acres in another deed and other lands in his possession made him among the first settlers in the city of Newark NJ now occupied by more than 200,000 inhabitants.

One peculiar feature of the times of our forefathers was the method of spelling their names. Our first ancestor signed his will JOHN CUNDITT, while his son signed his will PETER CUNDICT. At present about three fourths of the family spell in Condit and others Condict.

The descendants of PETER CONDIT and MARY HARRISON are numbered now about 4,000 of which we have a record. In New Jersey they are most numerous in Morris and Essex counties. About 1830 they began to "go west." The first to come to Delaware County was SIMON CONDIT, whose descendants with their marriage connections with the name of PIERSON, HARRISON, WHITEHEAD, and many others form the nucleus of the original settlers of Trenton township.

In Licking county came another branch which with the numerous family connections made up chiefly the village of "Jersey." Others went to Wood county and to the city of Cleveland, then having only a few thousand inhabitants. One branch went to western Pennsylvania and settled in Mercer county where their connections are numerous. DAVID CONDIT was the leading one. He married RACHEL ROSS of Washington county about the year 1798. They had 12 children. The locality was then an unbroken forest. Their nearest settlement was 16 miles distant. The first crops were a failure, hence the settlement was put in charge of one man while the rest went to Washington county to spend the winter. DAVID CONDIT was chosen to remain, and spent the winter in that solitary home. When the spring opened the colony returned and life began anew.

Two of the descendants of DAVID were with us Thursday. REV. PHILLIP CONDIT left Wood County O in 1854 and with several ox teams and a family of 8 persons made his way to Oregon. He was 5 months on the road. I have his journal. When about half of the oxen had died they harnessed up the cows.

The following states have people of our family who have furnished us with data for history and with whom correspondence is held: Oregon, Washington, California, Iowa, Indiana, Illinois, New York, Kentucky, Maryland, Pennsylvania, New Jersey and Texas. Some of these have been pioneers of the various localities.

It is sometimes useful to look back on the steps the fathers trod. A writer has said: "Whatever withdraws us for the moment from the power of our senses; whatever makes the past, the distant, or the future predominate in our minds advances us to the dignity of thinking beings. Far be it from us to be indifferent or unmoved by steps that conduct us over any ground which has been dignified by wisdom, bravery or virtue." A.H.CONDICT

THE PORTER MURDER TRIAL

Marilyn McPherson, 1114 Shady Lane, Ashland OH 44805

(see Winter 1988 REPORT, page 185)

Thomas Porter Jr. is identified as being the one who married Sally McCune in 1814. She divorced him in 1841. Thomas and Sally were my ancestors, but they lived in Milton Twp. In the 1820 census for Milton, there is a Thomas Porter and also a Thomas Porter Jr., the latter having two children under 10 years. In the 1830 census the older Thomas is gone, but the one I believe to be Thomas is there under Thomas Poter instead of Porter, and he has 3 children which agrees with Sally's will in Mahoning County, naming son Daniel and daughters Almira Griswold and Mila Snider wife of Hyram. From the 1850 census, Daniel was born c1821; Almira c1823 and Amelia in 1816.

From Abstracts of Probate Records of Trumbull Co (p156) the 5th paragraph states that David Porter came to Ohio about 2 years after his father's death and that Thomas came with him. Thomas lived with David who had care of him. Thomas lived awhile with his sister Mrs. Reed, with Joseph and with Mr. Brown, but his real home was at David's.

Two years after his father's death would be 1815 and the record states who he was living with. This would be the time he was supposed to be married to Sally. The error probably comes from page 157 of the same book under "Mat'l by GMW: Chancery Records Vol.5 pg 214" where GMW tells of Sally's divorce from Thomas. I have a copy of the deed when Amelia purchased the land, and it is in Milton Twp.

Unless some other record exists, I can't believe that the Thomas who m. Sally McCune in 1814 and had children in 1816, 1821 and 1823 was the same Thomas declared insane in 1818.

Ed. comment: Obviously, this family requires further work!

BOUND FOR OHIO - NOVEMBER 3, 1910

Judy J. Bishara, 2712 Bendemeer Court, Poland, OH 44514

The following list of names were abstracted from a passenger arrival list for the S.S.FLORIDE at the port of New York on November 3, 1910. Departure was from the port of Havre on October 22, 1910.

There are 29 columns of information for each passenger on the list, all valuable for the genealogist. Researchers must consult the microfilm of the original list to retrieve all information entered thereon. For example, information about relatives and addresses in the old country, as well as information about the relative and address the immigrant intended to meet in the U.S. and the birthplace of the immigrant is on the original list. National Archives microfilm publication T715-1587, Volume 3498, page 175-235 is the source used.

The information abstracted for immigrants is listed in the following order: Family name, given name, age & sex, marital status (Married, Single, Widow), nationality, race, last residence, intended destination. As these are all OHIO, only the city is listed, and underlined. The page number follows each entry. All entries were recorded in handwritten script, and the compiler apologizes for any corruption of village names in the various countries represented here.

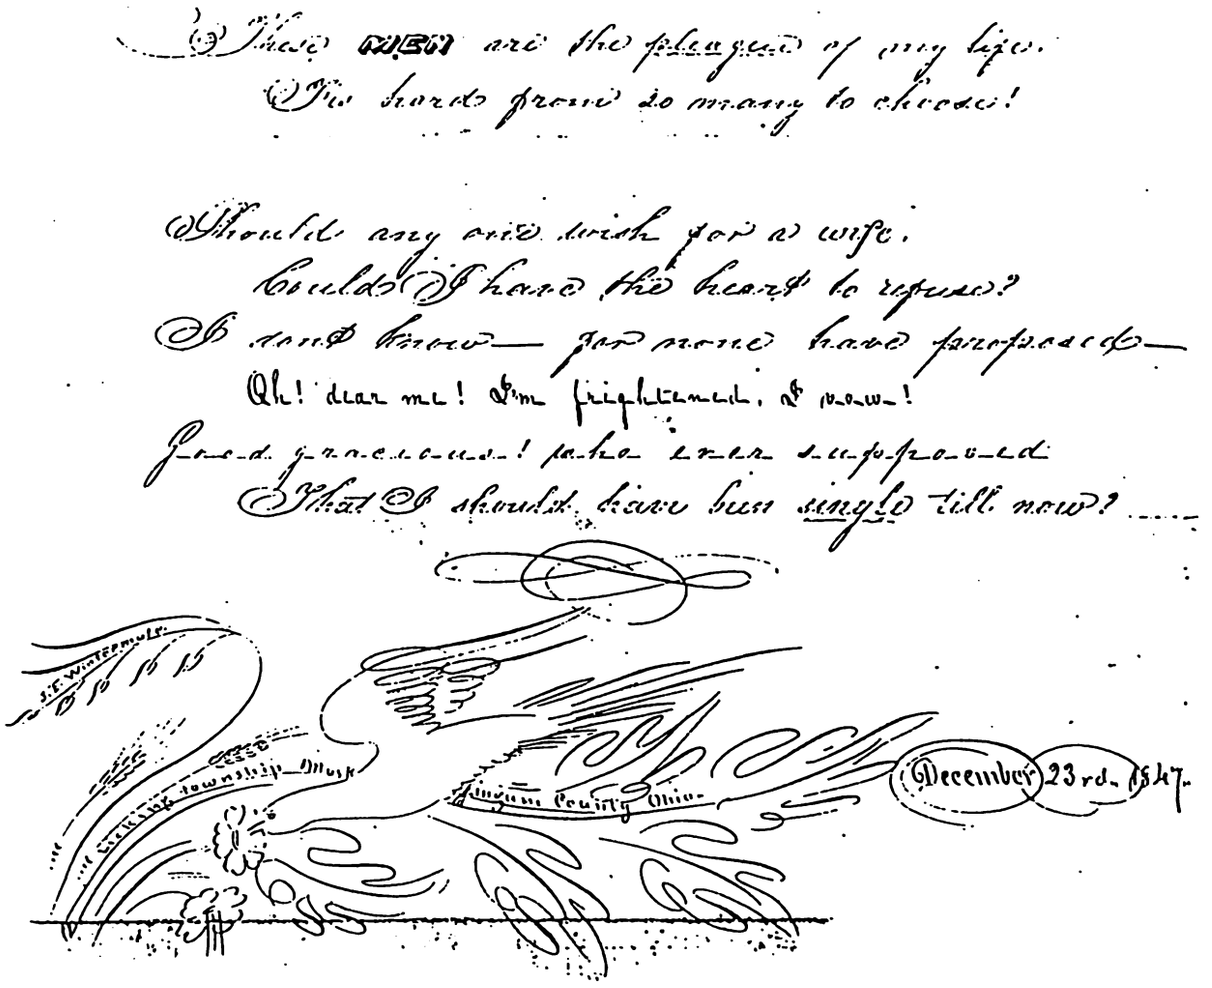
Heigh-ho! for a husband!— Heigh-ho!
Where tarries our lusty dolly?
Shall never a gentle knight come to woo?
Will nobody marry, and, pray?
Oh begin to feel strange, O'erheated!
With beauty my prospects will fade,
Oh give me myself to the despairer
Before I am quite O'ershadowed and ill-fitted.

If men eat no beans as we do —
Oh thought it a sin and a shame —
That we are but dull spirit enough
To ask men to tell our names . . . . .

If men eat no beans as we do —
Oh thought it a sin and a shame —
That we are but dull spirit enough
To ask men to tell our names . . . . .
Yet I turned up my nose at the suitors
And must darken my eyes at the lads,
Or then I find out it is too short,
And never I'll get no faces at all.



These MEN are the pleague of my life.
'Tis hard from so many to choose!
Should any one wish for a wife.
Could I have the heart to refuse?
I don't know— for none have proposed—
Oh! dear me! I'm frightened, I vow!
Good gracious! who ever supposed
That I should have been single till now?

HEIGH-HO FOR A HUSBAND
by George O. Morris

to MISS MARY C. BAKER

HEIGH-HO! for a husband ! -- Heigh-ho.
There's danger in longer delay!
Shall I never again have a beau?
Will nobody marry me, pray?
I begin to feel strange, I declare!
With beauty my prospects will fade
I'd give myself up to despair
If I thought I should die an old-maid.

I once cut the beaux in a huff--
I thought it a sin and a shame
That no one had spirit enough
To ask me to alter my name.
Lo I turned up my nose at the short
And cast down my eyes at the tall,
But then I just did it in sport.
And now I've no lover at all.

These MEN are the pleague of my life.
Tis hard from so many to choose!
Should any one wish for a wife.
Could I have the heart to refuse?
I don't know-- for none have proposed--
Oh! dear me! I'm frightened, I vow!
Good gracious! who ever supposed
That I should have been single till now?

JONAH FARQUHAR (1778-1857)

Robert Nichols Farquhar*

The earliest official record found so far shows that Jonah FARQUHAR was residing in Warren County, Ohio when he bought land in Section 2, Town 3, Range 8 between the Miami River Survey on July 15, 1806. (1) That was the year that he and brother Mahlon traveled to Ohio using their inheritance from their father to finance the trip. (2) The brothers first stopped in Greene County where Jonah met Elizabeth BEAL, daughter of Jacob and Sarah BEAL. They then traveled on to Clinton and Warren Counties.

After exploring, the brothers decided to embark on a new adventure. They sold the horses which had brought them to Ohio, went to a mill located on the Little Miami River near Waynesville and bought some flour. They then built a flatboat, or raft, loaded the flour and other provisions and started down the river to find a market for their wares.

Near what is now the town of Milford, their journey was temporarily interrupted when their boat was damaged from colliding with the river bank. After making repairs, they proceeded on to what is now Cincinnati. They did not like the state of the market there so they bought a larger boat loaded it with and loaded it with what they had bought plus additional provisions and passengers and started down the Ohio River, headed for New Orleans. (3)

Upon their arrival in New Orleans, they sold their provisions and boat. They then booked passage on a schooner bound for Baltimore, Maryland via the Gulf of Mexico, Atlantic Ocean, and Chesapeake Bay. From there they traveled to their original home located in what is now the town of Union Bridge in western Maryland. (4)

The brothers remained at their old home until the summer of 1807 when they again decided to journey to Ohio by:horseback. This time other members of the family joined them. Jonah and Mahlon settled in the northern part of Greene County (the land purchased in 1806), a few miles from what is now Oldtown. Other members of the party went to Warren and Clinton Counties to settle. They built a house, and started improving and farming the land. (5)

On July 15, 1808 Jonah and Elizabeth BEAL who was twelve years his junior, were married. (6) She was born in Fayette County, Pennsylvania, January 4, 1790 and moved to Ohio with her father and step-mother Mary GOWERY? in 1803.(7)

Mahlon FARQUHAR continued to live with his brother and sister-in-law for two years then moved to Jefferson County to live with his sister where he died in 1810. (8) During his lifetime, Mahlon, along with Jonah also bought land on Turkey Union Run, Clinton County, Ohio. (9)

Jonah and Elizabeth FARQUHAR continued to live in Greene County and in 1811 Jonah became quite ill. His doctor did not expect him to live; however, he slowly recovered but was still unable to perform hard labor in the Spring of 1812. Consequently, he and his wife decided to visit relatives They traveled by horseback, taking their eighteen month old son, Mahlon FARQUHAR, and first went to Jefferson County to visit Jonah's relatives. Next they journeyed to Fayette County, Pennsylvania to visit Elizabeth's kin. Finally, they proceeded on to what was then Frederick County, Maryland to see mor FARQUHARS. While in Maryland, Jonah finally but they decided not to return to Ohio at that time because the War of 1812 had made conditions in their home state somewhat dangerous. They moved to New Market, Maryland where they rented a home and tanyard. While at New Market, Andrew FARQUHAR and WILLIAM FARQUHAR were born. Andrew on November 27, 1812 and William on August 11, 1814. (10)

The War ended in 1814 so Jonah and Elizabeth decided to return to Ohio. Because of an outbreak of what they termed "milksickness" in Greene County, they decided to move to to their land in Clinton County. There they remained the rest of their lives. They also had ten more children:

William Beal FARQUHAR, born December 15, 1815
Jacob FARQUHAR, born April 6, 1818 (11)
Allen FARQUHAR, born February 5, 1820
Benjamin FARQUHAR, born February 15, 1822
Amos FARQUHAR, born September 22, 1824
Sarah FARQUHAR, born August 7, 1826 (12)
Philip FARQUHAR, born February 14, 1828
Maria FARQUAHAR, birth date unknown
Phebe FARQUHAR, born May 1, 1830
Isabelle FARQUHAR, born March 13, 1836 (12)

The FARQUHARS built a house and a tanyard and Jonah followed the trade of tanning until 1837 when his health would no longer permit him to be so employed. He rented out his tanyard and never worked in that capacity again.(13)

The FARQUHARS were staunch Quakers and had joined the Caesar's Crek Monthly Meeting on March 26, 1819. (14) Jonah FARQUHAR wa also an ardent abolitionist. (15)

Elizabeth BEAL FARQUHAR died August 18, 1847 and Jonah FARQUHAR died April 10, 1857. (16)

Most of the FARQUHARS now living in Clinton or Montgomery Counties are descended from Jonah or his uncle Benjamin FARQUHAR.

OHIO YEARLY MEETING OF SOCIETY OF FRIENDS, JEFFERSON COUNTY, OHIO

Frances N. Slack*

The following abstract is taken from The Ohio State Report of the Supreme Court of Ohio, December term 1873. The case was heard on appeal from the District Court of Jefferson County.

The Ohio Yearly Meeting of Society of Friends purchased 4 Apr 1832 of WILLIAM HAMILTON Certain real estate in Jefferson County, Ohio, and legal title was conveyed to trustees of said Ohio Yearly Meeting, to wit, JOHN STREET, JACOB HOLLOWAY, BENJAMIN HOYLE and HENRY CREW, the survivor of them and heirs at law of said survivor, in trust and for the use of said Ohio Yearly Meeting of the Society of Friends. Said premises were purchased for the purpose of erecting and maintaining a boarding school for the benefit and use of said Yearly Meeting.

On 7 Sept 1855 said Ohio Yearly Meeting appointed ZADOCK STREET, ELWOOD RATCLIFF, JAMES B. BRUFF and ABRAHAM STANLEY trustees of Ohio Yearly Meeting instead of and as successors to John STREET, Jacob HOLLOWAY, Benjamin HOYLE, and Henry CREW, and said John STREET and Jacob HOLLOWAY having died, directed said HOYLE and CREW to convey and transfer the premises upon like trust and terms held by them to the last appointed trustees.

HOYLE refused to convey the premises 21 Sep 1855, and that same day undertook to convey premises by deed to defendants, GEORGE GILBERT, NATHAN HULL, ASA GARRETSON, ROBERT ELLYSON, together with JOHN FAWCETT and GEORGE PATTON, then living but deceased by 1873.

The case reached the Ohio Supreme Court as William G. HARRISON, et al v. Benjamin HOYLE, et al.

DEATH ROLL.

THE PROCEEDINGS OF THE THIRTY-FOURTH ANNUAL ENCAMPMENT, DEPARTMENT OF OHIO, GRAND ARMY OF THE REPUBLIC, FINDLAY, OHIO, MAY 8,9 and 10, 1900 was published in 1900. The work contains a death roll of G.A.R. members who died during the preceding year, arranged by the number of the Post to which they belonged. A listing of the Post numbers appears in THE REPORT 29:1:6 (Spring 1989).

This list was submitted by Ronald B. Mitchell, M.D., 1245 Sand Run Road, Akron, OH 44313.

We would like to obtain similar "death rolls" from the other volumes of these PROCEEDINGS. If our readers can supply them. We have now published the lists for 1900 & 1902.

"When the years of Earth are over, and the cares of Earth are done
When the reign of Time is ended, and Eternity begun,
When the thunders of Omniscence on our wakened senses roll,
And the sky above shall wither and be gathered like a scroll;
When, among the lofty mountains and across the mighty sea,
The sublime celestial bugler shall ring out the reveille,
Then shall march with brightest laurels and with proud, victorious tread,
To their station up in heaven, our Grand Army of the dead."

A SHORT ACCOUNT OF OUR MOTHER ELIZA STARBUCK SMITH (1816-1901) BY HER DAUGHTER SARAH T. SMITH (1837-1921)

I have thought many times I would be glad to give a more definite account of our dear mother but have put it off from time to time until now, in the 67th year of my life. I feel that my own faculties are very liable to become weakened and if I do anything, it is time to begin.

It seems to me that she had more than usual ability. Her perceptive powers were very bright, so quick to notice things out of the common way. Although her opportunities in an educational way were very limited, she did not stand still and think there was nothing further she could do. She was a great reader and had a good memory, thereofe, graphic in her description of what she had seen, heard, or read. It was a great pleasure to me, in my childhood days, to hear her relate the experience of her youth.

She was the daughter of Samuel and Asenath Starbuck and was born in Belmont County, Ohio. It seems, from accounts, that her parents moved from Belmont to Logan County when she was but a few months old. Her mother, in writing to her folks after their removal, asks them to excuse her writing as little Eliza is on her lap jabbering away. The mother was very lonely and longed for her own home people. In those days, that part of Ohio seemed a long distance from Barnesville. There being no public conveyance, their visits were not frequent and postage was so expensive that few letters were written. I think about two years after they moved to those parts, another little girl gladdened their home, whom they called Sibbilla. Our grandmother had an aunt living still further west who was intending to visit in Belmont County in a short time and grandmother was to go with her but ere the time came, she was called to that bourne from which no traveler returns. She must have died with short sickness, it seems the husband waited to send the sad tidings until her aunt went. It must have been a terrible shock to them to receive such news just when we suppose they were anticipating the joyful meeting and loving embrace of their daughter and sister. Then her father (Stephen Hodgin) and her sister Amy made preparation to go after the little children; they drove through in a wagon, found the children stopping with one of their neighbors and so well contented that mother had no notion of changing their situation for a home among strangers, so crawled away under the house to get away from them, greatly distressing their aunt Amy; but when morning came, she thought better of the plan and went without further trouble. When they started, their father went apiece with them. After he turned back, mother said, "I expect my father is crying now."

She has told me that he came to Belmont County to see them about a year afterwards but soon after that married a second wife and it is likely the cares of a young family took his time and drained his purse. Although he lived until after mother was married, she never saw him more.

After her death, we found a scrap of a letter he wrote in reply to one father had written him asking his consent to marry his daughter. He seemed to regret her prospect of marrying any one as he had hoped to have her with him for a time but as it was to be, he was glad that it was no other than David Smith's son.

From accounts, the little children were much attached to one another. I do not know how old Sibbilla was when she climbed on a chair to reach something she wanted and fell back into a tub of hot water, scalding her so badly that she only lived a few hours. poor mother! This was a heart-rendering, and I may say, life-long grief to her, even in her great age if she heard of anyone getting burned, it seemed to bring her own trouble fresh to her memory.

She continued to live with her grandparents until grown. Soon after she was eighteen, she married and as I have said, lived with father over fifty-six years. She was spared to us more than ten years after he was gone. She died the eleventh day of second month 1901 aged eighty-four years, five months and twenty-one days.

May we not hope there has been a reunion of the young mother, the little sister, our precious mother and dear father in the home not made with hands, eternal in the heavens?

OHIO D.A.R. ROSTERS

It has come to our attention that further explanation is needed regarding the use of the three volumes commonly called "Ohio DAR Rosters." They were published by the Ohio Society, Daughters of the American Revolution, and are actually titled as follows:

THE OFFICIAL ROSTER OF THE SOLDIERS OF THE AMERICAN REVOLUTION BURIED IN THE STATE OF OHIO (1929) [VOL.1]

THE OFFICIAL ROSTER OF THE SOLDIERS OF THE AMERICAN REVOLUTION WHO LIVED I N THE STATE OF OHIO (1938) [VOL.2]

OFFICIAL ROSTER III SOLDIERS OF THE AMERICAN REVOLUTION WHO LIVED IN THE STATE OF OHIO 1959 [VOL.3]

These works have long been regarded as the "last word" concerning the hundreds of Revolutionary Soldiers who lived in Ohio, but some words of caution are necessary when using them.

There are additions and corrections in Vols. 2 & 3, which should also be examined. There were also many additions and corrections published in the newsletter titled Ohio DAR News after 1959.

Many of the "soldiers" listed in these works have never been proven to have had Revolutionary service, and have never been accepted by the National Society, Daughters of the American Revolution. In originally compiling these works, volunteers from various chapters gathered information about possible soldiers from county histories, court records, obituaries, and cemetery records, and other sources. Many records were submitted for men who were old enough to have served, but for whom no official service was ever found. There are also records for men who were far too young to have served, but who may have had War of 1812 service, and therefore, their names appeared on various pension lists. In many cases, incomplete sources were cited, and it is impossible today to find these cited sources. An example is "Warren Military Book" cited for a Trumbull County soldier; no such record can be found.

Another common misconception is found in the interpretation of an abbreviation:

"Fur.Inf. Mary Chesney Chapter, Warren Ohio"

This abbreviation does NOT mean that this Chapter has further information; it merely means that the information was furnished by the Chapter. It will usually do no good to contact the Chapter, as chances are very slim that they have any additional information about a specific soldier.

We do not intend to detract from the usefulness of these important compilations, but only to point out that there are shortcomings which need to be pointed out.

It is also important for users to take the time to READ THE INTRODUCTION & FOREWORD to any and all books being used. The compiler had good reasons for wanting the user to have additional information about the records used, and it is to YOUR advantage to be aware of the limitations of the records.

The Official Roster

—OF THE—

SOLDIERS OF THE AMERICAN REVOLUTION BURIED

IN THE

STATE OF OHIO

FOREWORD

The records contained in this Roster were presented by the Daughters of the American Revolution to the State of Ohio as a tribute of respect to the hardy pioneers who transplanted to this State the noble ideals for which they fought from 1775 to 1783, and who now sleep the last sleep beneath its soil.

The 87th General Assembly of Ohio accepted the gift of these records from the Daughters of the American Revolution and provided an appropriation for their publication as a part of the Military records of the State. The Roster is not designed as a genealogical reference book, although it may be of service in tracing pioneer ancestry. Its primary object is to present an authetic and complete list of Revolutionary soldiers buried in this State. Research has extended over a quarter of a century, and had it not been for the patriotic service given gratis by Ohio men and women the compilation of these records would not have been possible. No detail was too insignificant for these searchers; county cemeteries were investigated by faithful Chapter chairmen of the D. A. R.; newspapers gave freely of their space; the U. S. Bureau of Pensions gave valuable aid and many persons were assiduous in searching the D. A. R. lineage books and the published lists of the Sons of the American Revolution.

Contained herein are many records of proven service, but there are some which may never be proved though the service given by the individuals is beyond question. Information in many instances was meager, but this, it is felt, can be corrected by adding to the Roster additional records which are now or will be in the future under investigation. The chapter or person who filed the data is responsible for the authenticity of the record and any communication should be carried on with them. Filing of the records was begun by Mrs. Eugene Kennedy, Dayton, Ohio, during her term as State Chairman of Historical Sites and Revolutionary Graves, 1920 to 1923, and the Roster was compiled by the present State Chairman who submits the work in answer to the toast of David Morris, Revolutionary soldier, who pleaded at a patriotic meeting held at Troy, Ohio, July 4, 1827—

> "May the precious blood that was spilt between the years '76 and '83 as a sacrifice for our liberty and independence be ever commemorated."

Lest the reader should wonder at the large number of Revolutionary soldiers buried in Ohio, it should be recalled that the present boundaries of Ohio were nearest the original colonies, and when land grants were given to the soldiers thither came the hardy New Englanders to the Western Reserve and the region of Lake Erie; sturdy Pennsylvanians crossed over into central Ohio and the Virginian and Carolinian took up his abode in the southern part of Ohio. Here in the Northwest Territory they lived and died; they were fathers of a race who inherited the invincible courage and sterling qualities of the Revolutionary soldier and who took up the burden of founding the Nation by pressing westward.

STATE OF OHIO

VOLUME TWO

FOREWORD

THE RESEARCH for Revolutionary soldiers in Ohio, which covered a period of twenty-five years, enabled the National Society Daughters of the American Revolution of Ohio to present the material to the Ohio State Legislature for publication of volume one in 1929.

Nine years of continued research has secured sufficient new material for the publication of a second volume. Although a Bill to publish volume two was passed by the State Legislature, continued delay in financing the project has led to its publication by the Ohio National Society Daughters of the American Revolution.

Volume one was largely the result of definite research by the chapters, who have also made valuable contributions to volume II; but this book contains, in greater part, data from some fifteen hundred applications for pensions, from the Pension Claim department, Washington D. C., for which the State D. A. R. is financially responsible. Such authentic, though brief facts were copied as will lead to the identity of an Ohio ancestor, enabling a descendant to continue research for himself. Other hundreds were contributed by Sons and Daughters who gave patriotic service through personal research.

In addition to these, the absence of a name from volume one has led to the filing of hitherto unknown soldiers by their descendants. As an expression of their appreciation, many genealogists have also contributed valuable material. For all the assistance given, Ohio expresses its grateful thanks.

Contained in this volume is addenda to the first volume, furnishing new facts which clarify previous statements, giving newly found clues; or correcting errors reported by those who hold authentic records. No doubt other errors have crept in, unavoidable in preparing material handed down through various agencies over a period of one hundred and fifty years. Included in this group, are records for your investigation, containing authentic material, but not sufficient proof to permit it to be listed definitely as a Revolutionary soldier of Ohio.

The signing of a record by a chapter or individual indicates responsibility for authenticity of the data contained therein. In justice to all who have searched so diligently for both volumes, may we beg your indulgence in asking for additional facts, for as a rule, all known data is contained in each volume, and is given as a clue for your personal investigation, or by a genealogist. Ohio Daughters have ever been willing to respond to reasonable requests.

New Counties in Ohio were formed by combining townships from several adjoining counties. Hence, in research for ancestral lines, one is advised to seek historical data in the counties which contributed to the formation of newer counties; but search for the burial place could be in the new county formed. Such statistics we have given you in the county lists.

The widespread appreciation with which volume one was received was gratifying to the Daughters, and has inspired them to gather together in volume two, authentic history of other Pioneers of Ohio, that such may be preserved in their honor, with the hope that some interested descendant may find a connecting link and give additional honor to the heroic ancestors who have made America great!

ROSTER III

Soldiers of the American Revolution

Who Lived in the State of Ohio

1 9 5 9

Foreword

In the very beginning we wish to reiterate our thanks and appreciation to the good folk all over Ohio and elsewhere who have helped by providing data for Roster III. Without their loyal help we could not have done the work.

Sometimes we received data from two or three sources regarding the same record. We hope we did not fail to recognize every person at the head of the record they helped to provide. There were times when the data differed and we had to choose which we believed to be correct, but we always had a good reason for our selection.

We, as compilers, accept no responsibility for the authenticity of the furnished data. We used only material that seemed to come from reliable sources. In many cases, dates and marriages of the children of Revolutionary Soldiers are furnished. These should help future generations as a guide to further research.

We are told that about eight thousand Revolutionary Soldiers are buried in Ohio, many of whom lie on their farms with nothing more than fieldstones as markers or with no markers.

The order of data in Roster III has been changed to conform to the printed blanks furnished to the State Historian of each state by the Reporter General. These records, if confirmed, are published two years later in the annual N S D A R Report to United States Congress and the Smithsonian Institution.

We are including in Roster III the names of the Revolutionary Soldiers which have appeared in the first fifty-nine N S D A R Reports, commonly referred to as "Smithsonian Reports". In case one wants to know what data is in a Smithsonian Report, write to the Ohio State Historian, who has copies of these Reports.

Our work and the expenses incurred have been a gift of love. The State Board of the Ohio Society D.A.R. allowed us money to cover cost of typing, paper and incidentals. The Ohio Society D.A.R. has financed and published this Roster III which started during the administration of Mrs. Arthur T. Davis, continued during the administration of Mrs. Charles R. Petree, and was published during the regime of Mrs. Stanley Houghton.

We wish to acknowledge, with grateful appreciation the help of Mrs. R. Lovell Atkins, who compiled for us an index of all the townships in the State of Ohio.

"FORGOTTEN" CEMETERIES AND THE OHIO HISTORIC INVENTORY

James L. Murphy

Ohio genealogists should be aware of one useful means of recording the small, forgotten family cemeteries that are often in danger of complete obliteration by construction, mining, agriculture, and other activities. Recording the data available from tombstone inscriptions is one thing; seeing that the cemetery itself is preserved as an historic site is quite another.

Currently, construction activities that involve federal monies, as well as coal mining, and any proposed activities that would affect federal and state lands require a "cultural resources" study to determine whether any archaeological or historical sites eligible to the National Register of Historic Places would be affected. The Ohio Department of Transportation also conducts similar surveys for road and bridge construction projects. In this regard, archaeologists routinely check the Ohio Historic Inventory file maintained in the Ohio Historic Preservation Office at the Ohio Historical Center, Columbus, Ohio. Consequently, submitting an Ohio Historic Inventory (OHI) form guarantees that archaeologists and historians surveying construction sites will be aware of a particular cemetery should it not be discovered during the course of the field work.

In the past, the OHPO has not encouraged the submission of inventory forms for cemeteries, as their interest clearly lay more within the realm of architecturally and historically significant sites. Currently, however, they are accepting Ohio Historic Inventory forms for cemeteries, and genealogists who happen upon obscure, unrecorded family cemetery plots may well wish to avail themselves of this opportunity to record the cemetery's location with a state agency. Larger, well known cemeteries, including those that are still in use, are less suitable candidates for the Ohio Historic Inventory.

While most Ohio genealogists are well aware of the Ohio Genalogical Society's Ohio Cemeteries and are eagerly awaiting the revision of this book, it is safe to say that most Ohio archaeologists and historians do not know of the publication. Hence the need to record cemetery location data in the OHI file, where they will be sure to find the information.

An example of a completed OHI form accompanies this article. The cemetery in question consists of two unmarked sandstone markers and a more recent granite tombstone for Arthur D. (June 27-Dec. 25, 1888) and Sarah S. (Dec. 18-Dec. 18, 1886) Diehl. This small forgotten cemetery was found during routine archaeological survey of a 13-acre tract near Wolfpen, Meigs County, Ohio, for the Division of Reclamation, Ohio Department of Natural Resources.[1] The land is owned by the State of Ohio, and initial plans were to remove the hill on which the cemetery is located for use as topsoil in reclaiming a nearby strip mine. These plans were altered to avoid the cemetery when it was discovered.

Similarly, a Phase I and II archaeological survey for a 416 acre tract in Colerain Township, Belmont County, Ohio, revealed the presence of a small, unrecorded cemetery just outside the project area, along the east side of Township Road 475, in west-central section 8, Colerain Township. Here, two stones mark the last resting place of Joshua (1806-1887) and Sarah N. (1811-1871) Maule.[2]

In another instance, a small Meigs County cemetery was inadvertently discovered by the author, during the course of an archaeological survey for the Ohio Department of Natural Resources, but only because he misread the map and climbed the wrong ridgetop. This small, previously unreported cemetery lies on the hilltop in the southeast 1/4 of Section 28, Rutland Township, Meigs County, Ohio, and contains only three fallen, broken stones. One is for B.M. Brown, d 8 Feb 1845, ae 51y 7d, another for Estella A., dau/o H.D. & M.E. Smith, d 8 Aug 1877, ae 3m 13d, and another for Miles B., s/o L. & M.J. Brown, d 4 Nov 1873, ae 1y 8m 12d.

The two-page Ohio Historic Inventory form can be obtained from the Historic Preservation Office, Ohio Historical Center, 1985 Velma Ave., Columbus, OH 43211. The form is relatively easy to complete, and many of the items are not relevant to cemeteries. The most troublesome item for workers unfamiliar with the forms are the U.T.M. (Universal Transverse Mercator) reference numbers (Item 9), which are derived from the blue tic marks shown along the margins of the 7 1/2' U.S.G.S. topographic maps. A special scale is needed to derive these numbers. If any readers of The Report wish to submit OHI forms for cemeteries to the Ohio Historic Preservation Office, I will be happy to determine the UTM reference numbers, provided I am sent a xerox of the appropriate U.S.G.S. map with the cemetery location clearly indicated. The Ohio Historic Preservation Office prefers typed forms and will not accept xerox copies of the form or forms filled out with felt-tip pen.

EARLY OHIO SAMPLERS

The magazine EARLY AMERICAN LIFE (June 1988, p50-55) contains an article illustrating embroidered samplers from Ohio. Genealogical data may be gleaned from this unusual source. The following information is contained in the article:
